EXAMINER'S AMENDMENT

1. An examiner's amendment to the record appears below. Should the changes and/or additions be unacceptable to applicant, an amendment may be filed as provided by 37 CFR 1.312. To ensure consideration of such an amendment, it MUST be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee.

The application has been amended as follows:

In line 2 of claim 12, delete "polysdimethylsiloxane" and insert – polydimethylsiloxane—therefor

2. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: Applicants have claimed a hair-washing composition comprising:

- a) from 1 to 50% by weight of a cleansing surfactant,
- b) from 0.01 to 0.5% by weight of a first cationic polymer having a mean charge density at pH7 from 0.2 to 1.0 meq per gram,
- c) from 0.01 to 0.4% by weight of a second cationic polymer having a mean charge density at pH7 from 1.3 to 3.0 meq per gram,
- d) more than 40% by weight of water, and
- e) from 0.1 to 10% by weight of discrete, dispersed droplets of a water-insoluble conditioning oil with a mean diameter (D_{3,2}) of 4 micrometres or less, characterised in that both the first cationic polymer and the second cationic polymer consist essentially of the same monomeric units and cationic substituents.

Detergent compositions containing a surfactant, cationic polymer conditioner, and silicone conditioner are relatively common in the art, particularly in the field of shampoos and hair conditioners. While various cationic polymers having different charge densities are also known, the prior art does not recognize the problem that applicants have solved. That is, that shampoos having a specific mixture of cationic polymers with specific charge densities results in a composition having preferred properties such as smooth feel. Accordingly, the present claims are allowable.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
